This document has been prepared in Swedish and translated into English. In the event of any discrepancies between the Swedish and the translation, the former shall take precedence.

Company and the Group is strong. The proposed value transfers (dividend and possible repurchase) do not jeopardise the completion of investments regarded as necessary.

Unrealised gains form an insignificant part of the equity of the Company and the Group.

The value transfers do not affect the ability of the Company and the Group to meet existing and anticipated payment obligations at the right time. The liquidity forecasts of the Company and the Group include preparedness to manage variations in current payment obligations.

The financial position of the Company and the Group does not give rise to any assessment other than that the Company and the Group can continue their operations and the Company and the Group can be expected to meet their obligations in the short and long term.

In the opinion of the Board, the size of equity as reported in the most recent annual report is in reasonable proportion to the scope of the Company's activities and the risks inherent with conducting the business taking the value transfers now proposed into account.

Defensibility of the proposed dividend

With reference to the above, and to other information that has come to the knowledge of the Board of Directors, it is the opinion of the Board that the financial position of the Company and the Group means that the proposed value transfers are defensible with reference to the demands that the nature, scope and risks, including effects of the macroeconomic situation, of the Company's operations place on the size of the Company's and the Group's equity, and on the Company's and the Group's consolidation needs, liquidity and position in general.
